DETAILED ACTION

1. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.

2. Claims 7-10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Blazey et al (U.S. Patent 6,231,931 B1) for the reasons of record set forth in paragraph 2 of the Office Action mailed April 26, 2004 (Paper No. 20040414).

3. Applicant's arguments filed July 29, 2004 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. In reference to rejection of claims under 35 USC§ 103 (a) as being unpatentable over Blazey et al (U.S. Patent 6,231,931 B1), applicants mainly argue that Blazey et al. do not teach or suggest claimed press coat. Applicants also argue that wooden substrates coated with at least one layer of a UV curable polymer settled into the pores of the substrates and is difficult to cure by U.V. radiation causing health/safety and environmental risk.

These arguments are unpersuasive because there is no evidence on record showing that Blazer et al's coated final article has uncured polymer in the pores of the wooden substrate. Also there is no showing that the article of present invention is different than the prior art article. Further there is no showing that Blazey et al's product has unsaturated double bonds higher than 15% of the total amount.

4. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

Art Unit: 1773

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
